an of This ts

3.00

Selling

Overcoats in Prices

5—the tremendous selling of these as eclipsed any sale in our history. and we're saving you big money on

Hundreds of Fine $25 and $30 Suits and Overcoats

YOU YOUNG FELLOWS, and fellows who want to be young, are looking for just the kind of clothes we've got in this sale-Patch Pocket Suits-Balmacaan Overcoats-the nobbiest stuff in town. It's a great opportunity-better get here tomorrow.

Money's Worth or Money Back

D. J. KAUFMAN

The Man's Store

1005-7 Pa. Ave.

DRAMA LEAGUE BEGINS THIRD SEASON OF STUDY

Drama Study (Jub this week with a Blustrate the above.

January 14—(a) Stage conventions and plays, (b) Plays to illustrate the above, their value, Miss Mary S. Evans, (b) The March 2—(a) The one-act play, (b) law of the drama-conflict, Mrs. Helen E. Modern tendencies in technique, (c) Plays

CO LOANS

Stone, s(c) Plays to illustrate the above January 28-(a) The rise and fall of the tion. (b) The mechanical division of inaugurates the third season of the Character treatment, (c) Plays to

The program for the season is as follows:

The program for the season is as follows:

The program for the season is as follows:

March 11—(a) Theaters and modern a illustrate the above

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

DEATH RECORD. WHITE

COLORED.

COLORED.

Cornelius Blackwell, 26 & Defrees at nw.
John Magruder 47, 1728 17th st. nw.
Frank Bowe. 49, Washington Asslum Hospital.
Tarlor H. Bulley. 3, Gallinger Hospital.
Magraret Bland, C. 63 B st. ne.

Cop Wings Fleeing Bandit.

Pittsburgh, Jan. 9.—A highwayman, who id up an automobile in Grant boule-ird, and then compelled the motorist o flee with him until a policeman came up was shot and perhaps fatally wounded

WHITE.

Join Q and Alte A. Williams, boy, Ottavio and Ginseppa Trint, boy, Engree H, and Margaret B. Thayer, girl, Edward R, and Emma Seal and Edward R. and Emma Scal, girl. Frank H. and Florence E. Seiders, girl. Guseppe and Domenico Smiraldo, girl. Frank and Herricita B. Stefson, boy, Daniel F. and Alice G. Quigley, girl, Fredrick P. and Lucy D. Pfahler, boy, Ira H. and Francis G. Miller, boy, Christian L. W. and Mary M. Michel, girl, Chirice E. and Iva E. Harrington, boy, Diward I. and Grace Haigh, boy, James O. B. and Bettye A. Gray, boy, Adolph, and Helen Effenbach, boy, Adolph and Helen Effenbach, boy. Glovanino and Maria Dombrosio, boy.

Lewis and Annie Adams, boy, COLORED. Arthur and Minnie Quarles, girl, Alex and Emma Patrick, boy,

G. W. Law School Ranks High.

Only four law schools in the United vard, Columbia, Chicago and Pennsyl- etery.

Aqueduct Bridge Unsafe.

Secretary of War Garrison yesterday Baldwin D. Drain Celebrates Eigh declared in a letter to the Interstate Com-merce Committee of the House that the present Aqueduct Bridge is unsafe and should not be used any longer than abso-

Flowers for Weddings suggestions given. Gude, 1214 F .- Adv.

Kramer's flowers are always fresh cut-they arrive in perfect condition. We specialize on arranging artistic and beautiful sprays, bouquets, and floral decorations of all

We offer the widest selection of flowers and assortments in the city.

United States

KRAMER, 916 F St. N. W.

Branch Stores: 722 9th; Center Market.

RED MEN ELECT BROWN.

Anneostia Tribe Chooses Officers for Coming Year.

Mineola Tribe, No. 14 Impro of Red Men of Anacostia, has elected the following officers for the ensuing term: C. A. Brown, sachem; S. E. Womeldorph, senior sagamore; A. V. Myers, junior sagamore; Henry W. Tippett, chief of records; George E. Baxter, collector of wampum; William C. White, keeper of wampum; J. M. Caton, prophet; W. N. Swindells, first sanap; J. C. Duke, second sanap; Louie Weigle, guard of the forest; Albert Dyer, guard of the wig-

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church for Mrs. Irene E. Koonts, widow of the late W. L. Koontz, of this suburb, who died at her home, 2024 Fourteenth street, on Thursday night. Mrs. Koontz had been ill for a long time. She leaves several children States have a larger number of college Requiem mass was offered yesterday traduates in their student bodies than the George Washington University Law Church for Mrs. Etta Harrison, who died chool, according to statistics embodied suddenly on Thursday at the home of her a report issued yesterday by officials sister. Mrs. Edelen, 123 Fleasant street, the institution. These schools are Har-

ANCESTOR RACED WASHINGTON

tySixth Anniversary.

Baldwin Dade Drain, the oldest car-penter in Washington and one of the oldest members of the Oldest Inhabitants' Association, celebrated the eighty-sixth anniversary of his christening last night with a reception at John Dickson Home. Fourteenth and Gallatin streets north

Fairfax County, Va., September 8, 1823, and was christened January 8, 1829. Mr. Drain says both his grandfathers fought n the Revolution and his uncle once ran foot race with George Washington

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

For the District of Columbia, and Maryland-Fals west and the extreme West the weather will be air Sunday and Monday. It will be somewhat colder sunday in the Southwest and on Monday in the

TEMPERATURES IN OTHER CITIES.

The Town Crier

Mrs. Alice E. Woodroof, forty-five years old, 801 L street northwest, fell down a flight of stairs at her home resterday and broke her right leg. She was removed to Emergency Hospital. An address on "History as East Ethics," will be given by Miss Mary Sibley Evans this evening at 7 o'clock in the lecture room of All Souls' hurch, Fourteenth and L streets. The

Arthur J. Sinnott, of the Newark (N. J.) Evening News, yesterday was elected an active member of the Gridiron Club. The annual winter dinner of the ganization held in the auditorium of the

Thomas T. Kelly, thirty-five years

The Art and Archaeology League of Washington will hold its regular meeting for January in the Washington Club, 1010 Seventeenth street, on Saturday afterneon, at 4:15 o'clock. Paul Eartlett will give an illustrated lecture on his Pediment Group, "Feace Protecting Genius," for the House wing of the National Capitol.

A meeting of the Lincoln Circle of A meeting of the Lincoln Circle of Secretary, both of this city.

Harvey Street, Sixth street, Tuesday evening for the initiation of officers. Alexandria County.

Mrs. Peabody acted as presiding officer. Attending the dinner from this city

Mrs. Peabody acted as presiding officer. At the close of the business meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Street.

Mrs. Winston Churchill, who has been lobbying in Congress, and is also interested in the peace movement, will give a tea tomorrow afternoon at her home to the delegates to the peace conference and to those whe are in the city for the suffrage vote. Mrs. Churchill is in Washington for the winter.

Attending the dinner from this city were: Gardner L. Boothe, R. D. Brumback, James R. Caton, Harry B. Caton. J. Randall Caton, Robert H. Cox, Lou's N. Duffey, Walter S. Foster, H. Noel Garner, Lee O. P. Harlow, G. Washington Lewis, Robinson Moncure, Judge C. E. Nicol. Aylett Nicol, Howard W. Smith. Eugene B. Taylor, Walter U. Varney, and Richard B. Washington.

From Alexandria County, William M. Ellison, R. Gordon Finney, William H. Gaines, William C. Gloth, C. T. Jesse, Frank Lyon, Capt. Crandal Mackey, R.

The Capitol Hill Literary Society will sesume its meetings for the season tomorrow evening, at the home of Mr. Thomas. northeast. The subject for discussion will be on the French philosophy of the eighteenth century. A special musical program has been prepared by the musical committee, which consists of Mrs. A. H. Frear and Mrs. E. V. Carr.

The first meeting of the methers lively the first meeting of the methers lively distinction, and Robert S. Barrott, Washington, and Robert S. Barrott, ing in the vicinity of the Ryland M. E. Church was held Friday night under auspices of the Social Culture Story Hour committee of the Mothers Conmeetings Friday night at the Mount will be employed.

Pleasant Congregational Church, Miss Shadd being the story teller.

LOCAL MENTION

Shaffer's Choice Flowers Beautify intertant social functions, 500 lith st. nw.

BAR ASSOCIATION IN

Alexandria Members Entertain Visitors-Judge Thornton Will Be Host to Spring Meeting.

Alexandria, Va., Jan. 9.-About fifty members of the Bar Association of the Sixteenth Judicial circuit, composed of attorneys of this city, Alexandria, Fairorganization will be held at the New Elks' Home. The affairs was followed by a dinner at the Hotel Rammel. J. Randall Caton was toastmaster.

old, 508 Fifteenth street southeast, had his left collarbone broken yesterday when his horse fell on him at Half and K streets southwest. He was treated at Emergency Hospital.

The business meeting was presided over by Charles T. Jesse, third vice president, in the absence of President John M. Johnson.

An invitation of Judge J. B. T. Thorn-The business meeting was

A meeting of the Lincoln Circle of secretary, both of this city, the Ladies of the G. A. R., was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Jeanne Manassas; Eugene B. Taylor, this city; and Mrs. A. II. Frear, 223 Eighth street for discussion Cavies, R. E. Hutchison, C. A. Sirciair, gress and the Red Letter Day depart-ment of the W. C. T. U. at the Ryland Church. The Mount Pleasant Social Culture Story Hour will resume its About fifteen or twenty skilled mechanics

Gaines, William C. Gloth, C. T. Jesse, Frank Lyon, Capt. Crandal Mackey, R. S. L. Moncure, George H. Rucker, W. B.

District Deputy Grand Master Thomas Hiller, of Falls Church, assisted by Grand Marshal George W. Hauxhurst. William Burner, Elmer I, Crump, Lester Burner, Col. J. D. Payne, Capt. S. H. Stiles and J. L. Clark, all of Falls Church Lodge, last night installed the following officers of Potomac Lodge, this city: H. C. Clark, noble grand; I. S. Groves, vice grand; N. L. Williamson, recording secretary; W. E. Latham, sr., financial secretary; George W. Bontz, treasurer; Thomas R. Spicer, warden; R. M. Watkins, conductor; George S. Smith, chaplain; Smith Williams, left scene sup-

U. S. Depository for Postal Savings Funds.

The Value of Peace of Mind

Financial worries have shortened many men's lives. Do not let them shorten yours.

If for no other reason a substantial bank account is worth all the sacrifices you make for it in the peace of mind it brings

With money in the bank to fall back upon, in case your plans go astray, you can face the future with confidence and with every chance of making good.

With a safe protection between you and want you can work with a better heart and an undistracted mind-and can enjoy your leisure hours more thoroughly.

Savings Accounts can be opened at this bank with $1.00 or over and earn 3% compound interest.

Home Savings Bank

7TH ST. AND MASS. AVE. N. W. BRANCHES: 8th and H Sts. N. E. 436 7th St. S. W.

Three small frame tenements, located on the south side of Wythe street, be-supporter to vice grand; P. G. Gaines, and Ladder Company to serve for the inside guardian; A. J. Sullivan, outside year are as follows: J. H. Trimyer, guardian. president; G. M. Myers, second vice president; E. C. Wildt, captain; Richard Mumford, first Beutenant; Henry Beach, second lieutenant; J. T. Waddy, secre-tary; W. C. H. Wildt, recorder; John D. Normoyle, treasurer; Charles Clarkson, Joseph De Silva, Louis Folmer, Robert F. Downham, James Tennesson, mem-

Webster, J. E. Shinn, Al Hullings, W. C. H. Wildt, property committee. Virginia Consistory, No. 2, Septish Rite Masons has elected the following officers to serve for the year: Percy E. Clift, master of kedesh; W. S. Connelly, prior; H. Noel Garner, preceptor: J. William May, dhancellor; J. E. Alexander, min-Ladles' and gents' business lunch, the process of the conductor; George S. Smith, chaplain; Smith Williams, left scene supporter to noble grand; W. R. Cline, left supporter to noble grand; W. R. Cline, left supporter to noble grand; W. R. Cline, left supporter to noble grand; Tred W. Ebhardt, right scene supporter to noble grand; Fred W. Ebhardt, right scene supporter to noble grand; Fred W. Ebhardt, right scene supporter to noble grand; Grafton C. Treuary, left scene of the conductor; George S. Smith, chaplain; Smith Williams, left scene supporter, J. William Mrs. T. W. Robinson, Mrs. J. H. Fost Garner, preceptor; J. William May, chaplain; J. E. Alexander, minster of ster of state; Robert Reese, Mrs. R. C. Powell, Mrs. Robert Reese, Mrs. Samuel L. Monroc, Mrs. George Duncan, treasurer; A. A. Pau, prelate Uhler, and Miss Nannie Norton, G. P. Angelo, expert; R. H. Cox, assistant expert. ister of state; Robert S. Barrett, nimener; Frank W. Latham, secretary; Jumes M. Duncan, tressurer; A. A. Paul, prelate

bership committee; Charles De Moll, John

Announcement

It is with much pleasure that we advise the general public of the opening of our new and entirely modern

DRUG STORE

IN THE SOUTHERN BUILDING

H Street Side, Near 15th

where the very last word in quality of goods and efficient service will be found.

The highest grade of Drugs, compounded by skilled and competent registered pharmacists, will be used in our Prescription Department. We will merit your absolute confidence in the thoroughness of our efficiency in this important branch of our business.

QUALITY AND SERVICE

Our splendid line of Toilet Articles, Perfumes, Stationery, Candies, Cigars and voluminous assortment of general Household Necessities will meet with your highest commendation.

At our Fountain you will find the most refreshing and delicious Sodas, Ice Creams, Etc., that skill and money can produce.

SOUTHERN PHARMACY

1427 H Street Northwest

Phone M. 5509 M. 5490

A. M. Kloczewski, Proprietor

Flowers for Funerals

Also Deliver to Any Part of the

Albert W. Evans, Manager